

TIME WARNER CABLE SPORTSNET TO TELEVISION HONOR BOWL HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SHOWCASE

This year's SoCal Honor Bowl features the best high school teams in California - and the country - in live, two-day event

El Segundo, CA (July 29, 2014) – Time Warner Cable SportsNet announced today that it will televise the 2014 Honor Bowl games live this fall. The high school football showcase annually features the top high school teams in California and this year, national powerhouse Bellevue High School of Washington State travels to SoCal to take on Serra Gardena in the event finale. Serra is ranked 19th in the nation and Bellevue 16th in the MaxPreps preseason rankings. All five Honor Bowl games will air live on Time Warner Cable SportsNet on Friday, September 5 and Saturday, September 6 and more matchup information is available in the attached document.

“Bringing together students, coaches and community through sports to raise awareness of the sacrifice of our veterans is core to The Honor Group, and we are grateful to Time Warner Cable SportsNet for televising this great and life-changing cause,” said Mark Soto, Executive Director and Founder of The Honor Group.

“We’re extremely excited and proud to televise the Honor Bowl on Time Warner Cable SportsNet this year and continue our relationship with the Honor Group,” said Mark Shuken, Senior Vice President and General Manager, Time Warner Cable Sports. “Mark Soto puts on an amazing event for a great cause and we’re happy to support it while televising some of the best high school football matchups in the country.”
